Keep Control In Hands Of People, Jeffers Declares

Keep control of the nation in the hands of the people, maintain the United States always as a land of opportunity, not of guaranteed security and follow a reasonable policy in dealing with labor problems, W. M. Jeffers, retired president of the Union Pacific Railway, said in a forceful commerce in the American Legion clubhouse, Ontario.

He spoke at the annual meeting of the Ontario chamber of commerce.

An outstanding example of what a person can do in this land of opportunity, Mr. Jeffers referred to his humble beginnings as a janitor and "call boy." He used the personal illustration to emphasize the point that "this is a great nation, the only one on earth in which a boy, without influence or affluence can gain a high position in industry."

Changes are necessary in government but these changes can come through the U. S. constitution, he said.

"My hope is that the new Congress, soon to take office, will not go too far in trying to control the radical labor leaders," the distinguished speaker declared.

Hits Lewis

Mr. Jeffers, a member of a labor union, spoke in pointed terms about John L. Lewis.

"He honestly believes he is bigger than the government of this country," the speaker continued, "he is not concerned about people being cold, about schools having to close and about industries having to shut down because of lack of coal."

While expressing criticism of the administration in Washington and the manner in which labor problems were solved, Mr. Jeffers offered constructive points in a suggested remedial program.

His principal plea was for "the public to take keen interest in all matters." He emphasized repeatedly the power of the public's voice in the ballot box and at all other times.

Labor Court

Mr. Jeffers suggested establishment of a labor court to handle all labor disputes. Such a court should be non-political with the public, labor and capital represented. The speaker, who has for years belonged to a labor union, wholeheartedly supported the labor union mevement but charged that "no leader of labor has the right to tie up an industry."

The right to strike should not be permitted until all other means of settlement had failed. He cited the record in the railway unions, in which there was no strike until recent political leaders "sold the country down the river so they could be perpetuated in office."

Mr. Jeffers strongly hinted of the danger of Communism "if we do not stop movements of this kind."

Young People

"Pay more attention to the younger generation," he said and pointed out that some teachers in the schools and the subject matter should be carefully observed. "Some pople have the idea that something is wrong with the government," he continued. "Some changes are necessary but these can be made without disturbing our system of government."

He compared in percentages the number of Americans who vote and the number who vote in European elections.

In addition to the address, the feature of the meeting was the installation of Walter Babcock as president. He succeeded Leland S. Davidson. M. K. Smith served as master of ceremonies.

Ellery F. Wright, president of the Upland chamber of commerce, and Mrs. Wright were among the honored guests.

G.O.P. Plans Big Campaign

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27. (AP)—The Republican national committee probably will be asked at its meeting here December 5 to o.k. the spending of nearly a million dollars to keep the G. O. P. ball rolling in campaignless 1947.

Committee officials said they expect a budget ranging from $800,000 to $1,000,000 to be laid before the party group. The idea is to keep intact for the 1948 presidential drive the organization which participated in this year's sweeping Republican congressional victory.

An outlay of this size would permit the group to continue uninterrupted the flow of research material and political information it fed to G. O. P. members of congress and candidates this year.

Well pleased with the results of this month's balloting, committee members are expected to ask National Chairman B. Carroll Reece to remain at the helm. If so, he is likely to continue in the post until the Republican presidential nominee is chosen in the early summer of 1948.

With the Republicans moving for an early start on the 1948 race, Democrats won't get into action until the latter part of January. They expect to know then more about the health of National Chairman Robert E. Hannegan, now on a two months' rest ordered by his physicians.

But Senator Scott Lucas, Illinois, chairman of the senatorial campaign committee, said the Democrats ought not to let any grass grow under their feet. When Hannegan is able to disclose his future plans, Lucas said he believes the party ought to match the Republican budget and begin next year to rebuild its fences for 1948.

Students Raise $151 for Cow

European children will have more milk, butter and cheese due to the Thanksgiving gesture of the students of Upland Junior high school who contributed $151.16 towards the purchase of a heifer for relief.

The drive in the Elementary school will be made at a later date. The home room class of Miss Marie Ebel was highest in contributions with $62.42. Second was the home room class of Miss Ann Crandall with $26.67, while the class of Lewis Moore was third with $16.35.

The money is being forwarded to the Southern California chapter of the "Heifers for Relief" society with headquarters at Pasadena.

Students at the Sierra Vista and Eighteenth Street schools also collected money for the project, $10.76 and $12.27, respectively.

Panthers Will Play Thursday

With the Orange Empire football championship safely tucked away, the Chaffey Panthers will provide a Thanksgiving treat for sport fans when they tackle East Los Angeles Junior college at Graber field tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The teams are believed to be evenly-matched, with possibly a slight edge to the visitors. Chaffey's hard fight to beat Riverside and the fact that it brought them the league football crown may result in a slight let-down for the local eleven.

However, the Panthers have more often than not taken games "out of the fire" and even when the odds were against them either won or battled to a tie. It should be a bang-up ball game, with the chances for victory about equal for either team.

Marcantonio May Be Denied Seat

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27. (AP) A quiet move is underway to deny a seat in the new congress to Vito Marcantonio, New York City, it was learned today with disclosure that a congressional committee is investigating his election to the house.

The move has the backing of Rep. John E. Rankin (D-Miss), who has crossed verbal swords with Marcantonio on many occasions during the latter's 10 years in congress as an American labor party representative.

Rankin told reporters "it is probable" a resolution to deny a seat to Marcantonio will be offered when the new house convenes Jan. 3.

FORUM SPEAKER

Next speaker on the Chaffey Community Forum series will be Dr. Hubert Herring, author and expert on Latin-American affairs. He will be heard at the Merton E. Hill auditorium on Thursday, Dec. 5, at 8 p. m.

Expert To Tell "Inside" Story Of Argentina

The "low down" on the alleged alliance between Russia and Argentina will be given by Dr. Hubert Herring when he speaks at the Chaffey college auditorium on Dec. 5 in the third of the Chaffey Community Forum series.

The author of two best sellers on Latin-America, Dr. Herring has just returned from a six-month tour of Argentina and was on the spot during the recent elections which caused such world-wide interest.

Dr. Herring, who has made more than 40 trips to the Southern Republics, will speak in the Merton E. Hill auditorium at 8 p. m. on Dec. 5. The doors at Chaffey will be opened at seven o'clock to allow the early arrivals a chance at the best seats.

Founder and now director of the "Committee on Cultural Relations with Latin America," Dr. Herring is recognized for his "tough realism" in international affairs. An article, "Can We Run Argentina," appeared in Harper's magazine last month. In this piece, Dr. Herring says the United States has blundered in its Argentinian policy and adds that during the Roosevelt regime Cordell Hull and Sumner Wells conducted entirely conflicting policies.

"Good Neighbors" is the best known of Dr. Herring's books on Latin-America and deals with the past, present and future of the Latin-American countries.

Police Arrest Six For Lake Burglaries

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 27. (AP) Six were arrested here by Sacramento and Placer county officers last night during a downtown hotel search for suspects in the recent series of summer home burglaries at Lake Tahoe.

Police Sergeant Martin Charles said all those arrested will be questioned in connection with the Lake Tahoe case. Charles also reported the discovery in a wall telephone box of a can of opium. The room was occupied by Anthony Munich, 36, who was arrested for narcotics possession.

A committee to probe into the possibility of numbering houses up on San Antonio Heights was appointed at a meeting of the San Antonio Heights Volunteer Fire department Monday night.

It is planned take definite steps to provide house numbers with the cooperation of other organizations in the Heights and the county planning commission.

The group also voted to supply all members with badges and to purchase four additional floodlights. It was reported that three more fire hydrants had been installed.

Two new members, Lesley D. Clay and J. T. Lewis, were welcomed into the league. Guests were S. J. Lombra, retired Colton fire chief; Capt. Bader, Colton, and Capt. Cook, Ontario.

12 New Homes Started Here In November

With Upland already past the million mark in building valuation this year, an unofficial tabulation today revealed that 29 building permits have been issued in November thus far, with 12 of them for new homes.

Unofficial figures indicated that valuation for this month has reached $66,583. New dwellings accounted for $58,794 of the total.

Although this is a drop from last month when cost of building was over $70,000, total building valuation in Upland has already exceeded the one million mark, a history record for the city.

September, with $167,090.50, still remains the highest month in the city's history. March is second with $153,281.79 and April third, $149,011.98.

The most expensive home built here this month cost $8,640 while the smallest new dwelling in cost amounted to $1,500. Several commercial buildings were included in the building costs for this month, among them the Edward Hansen nursery on Euclid, repairs at Snowden's market, alterations on the building on Second avenue and for use by the Logan Candy shop, and alterations on the old draft board office for use as a jewelry store.

Blasts Secrecy Of Meetings

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27. (AP)—Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) urged today that the senate open virtually all committee sessions to the press and public.

Further, he told reporters, all committee votes ought to be a matter of public record.

The 38-year-old Californian noted that the congressional reorganization law which takes effect in January provides committee hearings shall be public "except executive sessions for marking up bills or for voting or where the committee by a majority vote orders an executive sesssion."

The same act requires that each committee keep a record of all votes, but it doesn't say they must be made public.

"I think committee votes should be as much a matter of public record as roll calls in the Senate," Knowland said.

Knowland is known to have been irked by the secrecy with which the war investigating committee veiled a proposal to send a subcommittee to Germany to look into occupation problems.

That question was finally settled—in the negative—yesterday when a telegraphic poll showed the committee opposed to the trip. The six Democrats voted against it, the four Republican members for it. The state and war departments have counseled against making the excursion at this time.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Nov. 27. (AP) — A slight earthquake at 6:45 a.m. today rattled windows and dishes. There was no report of damage.

Give Lewis 10-Day Extension In Effort To Settle Coal Strike

Judge Says Lewis Guilty of Contempt If He Ignores Order

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27. (AP)—Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough today ordered a 10-day extension of his order of Nov. 18, which was designed to avert a soft coal walkout.

The extension was ordered at the request of Assistant Attorney General John F. Sonnett, who broke into John L. Lewis' contempt hearing just 20 minutes before the order was due to expire at 12 noon (PST.).

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27. (AP) Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough said today John L. Lewis and his mine workers "are guilty of contempt of court" if it is proved legally they disregarded his order against a coal mine walkout.

In those words, Goldsborough indicated that his decision in the contempt case against Lewis and his miners would not be influenced by the union's claim that the stop-strike order violated the Norris-LaGuardia Anti-Injunction act.

Regardless of whether or not the Norris-LaGuardia act applies in the soft coal case, Goldsborough said, no one can disobey a restraining order.

"If that could be done we would have anarchy," the judge commented.

Lewis and the UMW so far have made no attempt to show that they tried to obey the judge's restraining order of Nov. 18, which instructed the UMW chief to withdraw his notice to the government that their working agreement was ending Nov. 20.

Clears Room

Shortly after his sharp interjection, Goldsborough recessed court at 12:30 p.m. (EST), and cleared the room. The whole morning had been taken up with arguments of three Lewis lawyers seeking to win dismissal of the contempt action.

Prior to the recess, Joseph Padway, general counsel of the AFL appearing in a demonstration of AFL solidarity behind Lewis, disagreed with Goldsborough's analysis of the law. Padway told the court that Lewis' attorneys had advised the mine workers' chief that he was within his rights in disregarding the restraining order.

The justice drew a laugh when he remarked dryly:

"The cemetery is full of people

Sonnett interrupted a lengthy argument by Joseph Padway, AFL general counsel, who was seeking dismissal of the contempt action against the United Mine Workers and their president.

Lewis' counsel promptly announced that the UMW chief, who is challenging the court's right to issue the original order, would not accept service of the extender.

Lewis, seated behind his lawyers in the crowded courtroom, smiled for almost the first time

SWINGS CANE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27. (AP) Raymond McFarland, young freelance photographer, attempted to snap a close-up picture of John L. Lewis today and suffered a skinned knuckle from Lewis' cane.

Scores saw the incident, which came as Lewis started to drive away from district court during a luncheon rescess. Lewis was in his sedan when McFarland stuck his camera through the window to snap a close-up.

sisnce the hearing opened this morning, but said nothing.

There was a hurried sotto-voce consultation between the judge and counsel for both sides.

Sonnett then said Lewis would be served with the order when he left the court building.

The original order instructed Lewis to withdraw his Nov. 15 notice terminating the UMW's contract with the government.

UPLAND TO GIVE THANKS TOMORROW

The turkey has always been a symbol of Thanksgiving for most Americans. This year, with practically all families reunited and the war really over, there will be a lot to be thankful for, in spite of the national and international problems that beset us. The friendly comradeship and fellowship which will be ours this year will more than make up for anything else. With this thought in mind, The Upland News staff takes this opportunity to wish all of its readers a very happy Thanksgiving.

U.N. Political Committee Okehs Troop Inventory

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 27. (AP)—The political committee of the United Nations assembly today approved an international inventory of all troops outside their home territories.

It then became embroiled in a new wrangle with Russia insisting on disclosures on all secret armament, including atomic weapons, along with figures on troops at home.

The voting was interrupted by a debate over procedure when Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov sought to amend Great Britain's proposals for data on domestic troops by inserting the words "and armaments at their disposal in home territory."

Sen. Tom Connally (D-Tex) took the position that Russia's move was out of order, but declared:

"I have no objection to a full disclosure on arms when we reach the disarmament stage."

Great Britain also objected that the Soviet amendment was out of order at this point, and a long exchange ensued between the Russian, British and American delegates.

The argument occurred after the committee had approved the inventory for troops abroad and a declaration stating that the troop census and the question of arms reduction were parts of a single general question.

Trying Years In Japanese Prison Camp Related To Presbyterian Men's Club By Upland Colonel

The trying years of war as a Japanese prisoner were vividly described last night to members of the Upland Presbyterian Men's club by Col. R. J. Rutherford, who was captured on Corregidor and spent the entire war in the hands of the enemy.

His was a story of hardship, mistreatment, death and disease; and a renewed faith in this country. A veteran of 32 years in the army, he had served in the Mexican border war, the First World war and the recent conflict.

From the time Corregidor surrendered, May 6, 1942, until he was liberated in Manchuria by the Russians, Col. Rutherford was in 15 prison camps in five different countries.

Atrocities

His story was filled with atrocities, from the deliberate bombing of prisoners following the surrender to the closing months of the war, when treatment improved considerably.

The grim story included long marches without food or water, a forced march through the Manilla streets with all natives lining the avenues to witness America's humiliation, incarceration in a swamp where the death rate was as high as 50 per day, moving in closed boxcars, 100 to each small car; 16 days in the hold of a ship, standing inspection naked in a cold rain, and numerous other incidents of treatment at the hands of the Japanese.

He said that he met only one "civilized" Japanese during his entire ordeal, and that was soon after the surrender. The general, who spoke perfect English, took a genuine interest in the welfare of the prisoners and upon leaving the camp, Col. Rutherford was asked how many would be unable to make the march, and trucks were provided for those, as well as stragglers who became exhausted during the trip.

Bad Soup

From the Philippines, Col. Rutherford was moved to Formosa, then to Japan, then to Korea and finally to Manchuria. His chief menu in all camps was a flavorless soup made of vegetable leaves and rice, not enough of either. In one camp he reported that he lost 60 pounds.

In Manchuria, through bribing a guard, they had access to a Mukden newspaper and were able to follow the war until the conclusion.

When the Russians arrived, the Japs were disarmed and the camp turned over to the Americans, who were told that all arrangements were being made to get them to America.

Still Fate

Fate still intervened as they encountered a mine field in the China Sea in which their escort exploded ten mines. Upon arrival at Okinawa, the hurricane warnings had sent so many ships into the harbor that the hospital ship went back to the China Sea and rode out the storm.

Col. Rutherford is now retired and has purchased a grove on Mountain avenue here in Upland, where he and his wife intend to live.

A crowd of 60 men were present at the turkey dinner, provided by the women of the church. President Howard Kilmurray presided at the meeting. Thanksgiving hymns were sung, led by Archie Moore, with Mrs. A. J. Hinshelwood at the piano.

Union Leader Gets 60 Days

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 27. (AP) Philip M. Connelly, former state president of the CIO, must serve 60 days in jail pronounced in municipal court as the outgrowth of a picketing dispute, under a ruling of the superior court's appellate department.

Conviction of the secretary-treasurer of the Los Angeles CIO council followed a trial in Judge Arthur S. Guerin's court. He was found guilty on four counts—of violating a superior court order limiting picketing, of participating in a riot, of blocking an entrance and of disturbing the peace.

The appellate department upheld conviction on the first two counts but overruled the lower court on the latter two. Concurrent 60-day sentences had been given in each instance.

Connelly was arrested last January during a bloody outbreak at the U. S. Motors plant. He and other leaders were later fined $50 on a contempt of court charge growing out of the same strike.

POA Cooperating With Quarantine Officials on Oriental Insects

Through the cooperation of the Pacific Overseas airlines with the Maritime Quarantine inspection, dangers of the introduction of insect pests from the Pacific to this area have been reduced to a minimum, according to C. E. Pratt, of the San Bernardino county agricultural department.

R. D. Clemens, supervisor of Maritime Quarantine inspection, recently visited the Ontario International airport and expressed approval of the setup to keep oriental insects out of California.

Located at San Pedro, Mr. Clemens is with the bureau of entomology and plant quarantine of the state department of agriculture.

Before leaving Hawaii all baggage is inspected, and en route to Ontario, the entire contents of the plane is sprayed twice with DDT; once after leaving the islands and once just prior to landing. Mr. Clemens said that the POA employes who work in this phase of the operation are thoroughly aquainted with all phases of quarantining procedure and are aware of the responsibility which rests on them.

He said that the quarantines against pests and the danger of introducing these additional hazards to agriculture through air transportation between the Pacific area and California are of extreme importance. Mr. Clemens, after discussing the subject with officials of the POA, said that because of the very sincere and determined effort of the airlines to make no mistakes, the danger of introducing any new agricultural pests or plant diseases is reduced to a minimum.

Should a plane arrive in Ontario without proper clearance, the San Pedro office is prepared to dispatch experienced inspectors here immediately and nothing would be allowed to leave the plane until proper clearance is made.

Police arrested Tom and he was later released after posting bail of $150.

VET, WHO SURVIVED WAR, DIES IN CAR CRASH; FUNERAL TODAY

Funeral services for Gilbert Sanchez, 33, a resident of Cucamonga for 24 years, were held this morning at the Our Lady of Guadalupe church, San Bernardino, with Father J. Nunuz officiating. Rosary was held yesterday evening.

Mr. Sanchez, who went through three major campaigns as an infantryman in the war, without receiving a scratch, was injured in an automobile accident in Rialto. He died Thursday morning in a San Bernardino hospital from a skull fracture.

He was reared by Mr. and Mrs. James Jack, 241 Feron street. It was a second tragedy for the family as Mrs. Jack passed way exactly a week before.

Mr Sanchez is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Juan Sanchez, a brother, Adolph Sanchez and, two sisters.

Burial will be in the city cemetery, San Bernardino. Mr. Sanchez, who was discharged from the army only six months ago, served in the African theatre, and the European theatre and the Middle Eastern theatre. A holder of the combat infantryman's badge, he participated in the European invasion.

Council Starts Safety Campaign

The Upland coordinating council Monday night voted to accept the responsibility of promoting monthly safety drives with 12 of the representative organizations taking charge for a period of one month.

The service organizations who will take part will appoint a member of their club to serve on the city's safety council and to also direct the monthly campaign put on by his own club. The chairman of the safety council is to be appointed later by the city council.

The action followed a presentation of the idea to the coordinating council executive board by the city council.

In a talk to the coordinating council which preceded the discussion, Police Chief Eugene L. Mueller declared "It's war on the highways. We ought to declare war on the reckless driver." He further emphasized that California now has a car for every 2½ persons and that no major engineering changes had been made in the past few years.

The Sinai Peninsula, between Africa and Asia, has been an important trade route since earliest times.

Library Imports Spanish Books

New books in the Spanish language have been added to the foreign book collection of the Upland Public library, Mrs. Ruth Nelson West, librarian, announced today.

These are not the usual textbooks on Spanish but regular stories which can be read by students or others interested in the Spanish language, Mrs. West said.

The books were published in Mexico and Buenos Aires and imported to the Upland library, making it the first time that books have been received from a foreign country.

Included among the new Spanish books received are some translations of English stories into Spanish.

"These books are to be read like any book in the English language and the knowledge gained in the classroom can thus be projected into the pages of modern history," Mrs. West said.

Sheriff's Posse To Disband; Stocker Plans Reorganization

The San Bernardino county sheriff's posse, organized about 10 years ago to assist the sheriff, voted to disband last week in order to give the Sheriff-Elect, James Stoker, a free hand when he takes office January 6.

Mr. Stocker, a prominent member of the organization when he was undersheriff, said that the posse has a vital function in county law enforcement and that he intends to reorganize the organization when he takes office.

HOME LIGHTING Quiz
"NO PEEKING, PLEASE, BUT ANSWERS ARE BELOW!"

1. White is most effective in reflecting light. Among other colors used in lamp and wall decoration, which is the most efficient illumination aid?
(a) Green
(b) Blue
(c) Gray
(d) Ivory

2. A new 60-watt Mazda lamp today costs 10c. What did a 60-watt bulb cost in 1923?
(a) 10c
(b) 20c
(c) 30c
(d) 40c

3. For proper lighting in your kitchen the wattage of the light bulb should be:
(a) 60-watt
(b) 100-watt
(c) 150-watt
(d) 200-watt

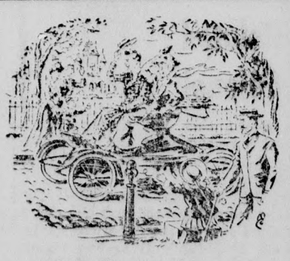

CORRECT ANSWERS
1. (d). Ivory's reflecting value averages 75%, as compared with 85% for white. Darker colors reflect proportionately less light, reducing their desirability in a well-lighted home.
2. (d). A 60-watt lamp cost 40c in 1923, or four times as much as it does today, and gave 50% less light.
3. (c) Kitchen work requires the light from a 150-watt lamp. All bulbs have their wattages stamped on them. Be sure you are using lamps of sufficient power.

About People—

George Culver returned Sunday afternoon from Ashland, Ore., where he went to be with his brother, Alfred Culver, who is seriously ill. The Uplander's kin was much improved at the time he left.

Just returned from a summer-long business trip to Wallowa, Oregon, are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Peters. The couple make their home in San Antonio Heights.

Mrs. A. N. Baker, Euclid Crescent East, was in for a pleasant surprise Sunday when a cousin, Mrs. Marian Thompson, Las Vegas, Nevada, unexpectedly dropped in for a short visit. Mrs. Thompson was motoring through on her way to Glendale. This is the first time in four or five years the two have visited each other.

Recently returned from a trip to Oklahoma are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bailey and son Jesse, 816 West Arrow highway. A second son, Raymond Claude, went to Oklahoma with them, continuing on to Kansas, where he will make his home. Claude, a former student at Beulah college, was discharged from the navy just previous to the trip. His wife has been living in Kansas.

Joel Climenhaga is back in Upland after serving 17 months in the army. He arrived here Thursday after spending some time visiting his parents in Pennsylvania before coming here. The Uplander plans to work until next September, when he will enroll in a college.

A recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed G. Luke, Red Hill, was an old friend, Mrs. Earl Harmison, who had been visiting in Los Angeles from Peoria, Illinois.

Dexter Galentine, a student at the school of agriculture, University of California, at Davis, arrived early this morning to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his mother, Mrs. Ada W. Galentine, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Bean, Jr., at their home, 520 North Laurel avenue.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY HEARS CRAIG TALK ON SOLARIUM WALL MURAL

Tom Craig, Southern California painter who had been painting the murals for the solarium at the San Antonio community hospital, spoke for the tea held Monday by the Woman's auxiliary of the hospital upon the completion of the murals.

The murals depict the San Bernardino mountains, taken from a study of the mountains in the late winter months, and shows the snow-covered peaks. Below the towering mountains are portrayed orange groves and fruit trees. A small bop sleeping beneath one of the trees forms the human interest.

The work on the murals was commissioned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Latimer and Mr. Craig has been working on the project for several months. The mural covers the west wall of the solarium, a room which is used by the Woman's auxiliary for their meetings, for staff sessions, dinner gatherings, and other such meetings.

A gift to the sick baby fund, sponsored by the auxiliary which helps unfortunate children back to health, will be made in memory of Mrs. Dudley Phillips, the group's immediate past president. In memory of Mrs. Phillips' service during her two years as president, the group observed a minute of silence.

Mrs. Robert L. Cummer, in opening the meeting, asked that all organizations send their annual dues along with the names of their representative on the auxiliary. Mrs. Charles Drew is in charge of the organization membership.

Mrs. S. P. Tipton, as program chairman, introduced the afternoon speaker and also announced that the anuary meeting would feature a discussion of the various medical insurance plans.

A tea hour followed the regular meeting with Mrs. A. A. Aita in charge of arrangements. The Mesdames Stephen Craig and Steen Carlson poured and Mrs. Aita's other assistants were the Mesdames Keith Koehler, Lloyd Dickens, John Meek, A. B. Van Fleet, Charles McHenry, Leland Scheu, Louis Val Perga, and Lowell Emmons.

Officers for this year, besides those previously mentioned, are Mrs. William Mason, first vice-president; Mrs. H. A. Ledig, second vice-president; Mrs. Hal B. Harlow, secretary; Mrs. Charles Schlachter, treasurer; and Mrs. A. L. Weber and Mrs. Edred Drew, board members.

Committee chairmen are Mrs. Tipton, program; Miss Hannah Comly, dressings; Mrs. Earl Johnson, sick baby fund; Mrs. G. A. Hanson, free bed fund; Mrs. Drew, community chest; Miss Alberts Schaeffer, library; Mrs. A. L. Weber, historian; Mrs. J. H. Pierce, publicity; Mrs. Aita, tea; Mrs. John B. Meek, dance; Mrs. E. F. Pelton, personal membership; and Mrs. Charles Drew, organization membership.

Commute 110 Miles Daily to School

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—The schoolhouse is 55 miles away but Harold and Tom Fales, of Pittsfield, make the trip back and forth every day. The brothers attend the Veterans' school at Erie, making the hour and a half trip in their shaky 1930 Ford.

"We decided we could make ends meet better by living at home," explained Harold, 21.

VERSATILE

BRIDGE, Ore. (AP) — The teacher shortage here put Powell Lancaster, chairman of the school board, at work teaching the third, fourth and fifth grades.

Anxious to get back to his regular jobs of farming and logging, Lancaster also became an advertising man in his appeal for teacher help.

"The wage is good," he said plaintively, "and housing is available, too."

UNDERSTANDING KEY TO WORLD PEACE COL. GRIFFIN TELLS WOMAN'S CLUB

Speaking before the Upland Woman's club when they met yesterday in the club house, Colonel Herschel R. Griffin declared, "Until we come to understand kinship, fellowship, and partnership there can be no world peace."

Before introducing Col. Griffin to the group, Mrs. George L. Winter spoke briefly about him, his work as pastor of the Ontario Baptist, as pyschology instructor at Chaffey, as chaplain in the Pacific area, and as a minister to all who need him. He is at present executive secretary for the Affiliated Teachers' association of Los Angeles which has 14,000 members.

Before his talk, Col. Griffin spoke of the contacts he had made overseas with boys from the Upland-Ontario area, many of whom he had had in his classes at Chaffey.

Col. Griffin took as his topic, "Women of the South Pacific and their problems," and illustrated his lecture with colored slides. He stated that one of the problems in helping the peoples of the Pacific was the difficulty of breaking through paganism and commended the missionaries for the work already accomplished in that as well as in other fields.

The slides shown by Col. Griffin portrayed the beauty of Hawaii in the country and in the people. A series of "before and after" pictures showed the result of education on the primitive peoples.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. W. R. Farmer. Flag salute was led by Mrs. William Amberson and the singing of "America the Beautiful" led by Mrs. Marion Maxwell, accompanied by Mrs. H. H. Bowers.

The 100th psalm, the "Psalm of Thanksgiving," was read by Mrs. L. A. Fox, following which Col. Griffin was introduced.

Mrs. Poli Sanchez, aided by Mrs. Albert Schmidt, was in charge of the tea hour. Mrs. H. H. Bowers and Mrs. Earl Salzman poured.

TRIP TAKES COUPLE TO SCENE OF CHILDHOOD DAYS IN MASSACHUSETTS

Now on a honeymoon trip which will take them to the scene of their childhood days are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bello.

The new Mrs. Bello is the former Olga Allessio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Allessio, 1785 West Ninth street. Mr. Bello's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elario Bello, reside in Geyserville, California.

The young couple spoke their vows Saturday morning at St. George's Catholic church, in a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Father L. O. Walters.

Traditional music for the rites was played by Mrs. George Cassell. Accompanied by Mrs. Cassell, Lena Quaglia sang "Ave Maria" by Schubert.

The bride wore white satin entrain and a shoulder length veil fastened by an orange blossom halo. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Norina Bello, the groom's sister, attended her as maid of honor, gowned in a yellow net gown. Mrs. John Allessio, sister-in-law of the bride, wearing blue net, and Miss Mary Testa, gowned in pink, served as bridesmaids. All the bride's attendants carried sweet peas.

Best man for the bridegroom was LecAllessio and the ushers were John Allessio and James H. Gaummond.

The wedding trip on which the couple left following a reception will take them to Pittsfield, Massachusetts, where both of them grew up. On their return, they will live in Ontario.

Mr. Bello served with the Seabees three years, two years of that time being spent in the South Pacific area. He is now employed in Pomona.

About 10,180,000 books were shipped to colleges in the United States during the 1945-46 school year.

GS Troop 20 Makes Ash Trays For Men At Naval Hospital

Busily engaged in the making of ash trays which are destined to bring an added bit of Christmas happiness to veterans stationed at Norconian hospital are members of Girl Scout troop 20, fifth graders at Edison school. Under the direction of their leader, Mrs. P. H. Cozier, and assistant leader, Mrs. Albert Schuler, the girls have wolded the trays of clay, hand-decorated them with gay colors and designs ready for the kilns.

Another successful venture just completed is the sale of 150 boxes of Christmas cards. As reported at the Tuesday meeting, the profits will augment the treasury sufficiently to provide for many activities the girls have planned for the future.

Troop members are Fanchon Carlsten, Darline Dorsett, Sheryl Flum, Carrol Hall, Arlene Junod, Betty Karch, Joyce Lamkin, Letty Lou Maurer, Patricia Morin, Emmajean Masker, Lois Nelson, Emolyn Pershall, Mary Alice Riddington, Thelma Roehrig and Sheri Vieira.

"Home of the Brave" Starts at Pasadena

Arthur Laurents' punch-packed drama "Home of the Brave" comes to Pasadena Playhouse stage from Nov. 27 to Dec. 8, to tell its story of six men, their battle for life itself in what Broadway reviewers called "the finest drama of the season."

In titular strength "Home of the Brave" is derived from the final line of "The Star Spangled Banner" but its cry for freedom and tolerance reaches back a single line in our national anthem to "the land of the free."

Federal population experts estimate that California's population will be more than 12,000,000 in 1960.

Football Does Its Bit In a Well-Rounded Program—

Good football teams do more than just bring victories and championships to schools. Good teams justify themselves by developing spirit among adults in the community, not to mention what they do to the students.

Chaffey's two champions are splendid examples. Without football at all, or with cellar-position teams, this community would lose much in scholastic interest and enthusiasm. We must have our stage plays, our classical concerts, our lectures and our forums, but to have a complete program we must have our sports. And what a great satisfaction it is to have champions.

Congratulations to Coaches Ray Rosso and Truck Lindsay. And don't forget the reserves on each squad who really make the stars great in the drudgery of the week-day practices.

Everything Is Centered On Pleasing the Public—

Now that we have had a taste of traveling by air, we can join the chorus in saying "That's the way to travel"! A recent flight took us in 6½ hours what it has taken three days previously.

There's the thrill of the take-off, then of speeding 180 miles an hour through the air in a 21-passenger liner for a few short hours. But the whole point is this: Airline employes are really alert to please the public. From the first phone call to the last farewell, every move is backed with the aim of pleasing.

All of us can take a lesson from this.

Sound Financing Enables City to Get That Which It Needs—

Perhaps it was overlooked by most people in an Upland News story last Friday, but the phrase has much meaning. The phrase was included in the report of the city council's decision to call bids for enlarging the city's water supply.

The phrase is this: "Funds are available in the city's capital outlay and depreciation accounts".

People in this community are fortunate in many respects—including the fact there is good business management and that a sound budget system through the years has resulted in the accumulation of reserves to handle replacements and extensions.

Income Tax Cut?

All reports from Washington indicate that the little man who foots the bill—Timothy T. Taxpayer—is going to have his income tax load lightened considerably when the 80th congress convenes next January.

Whether or not the slash will reach 20 per cent, as some Republicans have promised, is not at all certain. But it is not unreasonable to expect a reduction of at least 10 per cent.

The question is: Can income levies be reduced while we maintain all essential functions of government, reduce the towering national debt, provide sufficient funds to keep our armed forces at their proper strength, and continue to give veterans the aid they deserve?

That's a pretty big order and it may not be quite so easy to fulfill as some congressmen believe. Nevertheless, if the economy ax is used in the proper places it should be possible to accomplish.

"I do hope you enjoyed yourselves."

McKenzie's Column

BY J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The general interpretation of the latest U. S. note to Poland, that Warsaw can expect no further credits if it persists in what Washington considers "disturbing" election preparations, has heightened speculation in United Nations circles as to whether the U. S. intends to make a stab at pulling Yugoslavia and Poland out of the Russian sphere.

Such speculation has been current since the United States came out against continuation of international relief distribution and inferred, instead, that she intended to base allotment of her supplies at least in part on the reciprocal attitudes of needy nations.

Under UNRRA, relief distribution has been handled without regard for politics. The state department hasn't, of course, decided to stand idly by in violation of American tradition while there is mass starvation anywhere, but short of that, the idea from now on is to help our friends first and not to help peoples in countries whose governments work against us.

The realities are that by helping to feed a people and finance their government you strengthen that government in whatever it wants to do, and, conversely, if you wish to change a government, Hungry people and straitened finances can be a major weapon.

Under an international policy of relief distribution strictly on the basis of need, the U. S. conceivably could find itself feeding a people whose government, thus relieved of one part of its burden, actually would use the surcease to prepare for war against us.

The United States announcements, plus these realities, have led to gossip at Lake Success that, whether she has definite designs or not, America is in a position to break the Tito government and force a change in Poland.

Actually, however, this would depend on what these countries could obtain elsewhere. And it is not to be forgotten that Russia, not contributing supplies to UNRRA and instead, being helped in the Ukraine and White Russia, sent shiploads of grain to France just at a time when it would do the French communists most good in an election.

Wanted For Burglary: Man Without Pants

VANCLEVESVILLE, W. Va. AP—Breaking into C. S. Ramsburg's general store, a thief could chalk up his venture as a cold loss—after fleeing without loot and in a state of undress.

The would-be burglar broke a window, state police reported, then removed clothing to squeeze through the tiny aperture. Once inside, however, he was frightened off, leaving his pants.

For real help in your reading, observe the following suggestions:

1—Read quietly and slowly, not as you race through the daily newspaper. "Not snapshots but time exposures" should be the rule.
2—Read alertly, not mechanically. Visualize the scenes: "taste" the words.
3—Read searching for the personal message each day's passage has for YOU.
4—Your inner response to God's message is important. When He condemns, bow penitently; when He offers help, rivet your hope on that assurance; when He commands, obey.
5—Underline passages which strike fire. Copy them and repeat them aloud. Jot down a list of ideas these passages start going.
6—Memorize one key verse daily.
8—Make it a habit; enter the New Year as a daily reader of the Bible.

Around Town

BY THE TOWNSMAN

It seems as if Basil "Frenchy" Harris is having a little freight trouble these days. Nearly a month ago, he flew to South Dakota to do some pheasant hunting and shipped back his "kill" via refrigerated car. But so far nothing has arrived and Frenchy is getting pretty worried about the whole thing.

You see he's promised the Rotary club a pheasant feed and if he doesn't keep his word, well, you know what can happen at a Rotary club.

Johnny Meek makes no bones about what he thinks and the Riverside game was no exception. Apparently, what happened there was that Johnny and the head man on the Riverside bench had a bit of an argument on the matter of substitutions.

Between halves, Johnny had a little "conference" with the officials too. He told them that an ineligible receiver had caught the ball for Riverside's second touchdown. But when the game ended in favor of the Panthers, he no doubt forgot all about it.

According to a telegram received from Milt Chapman in New York, the Chaffey Tigers can defeat any high school team in the East while the Panthers "top Army."

There are a lot of things we can give thanks for tomorrow, even if everything seems to be all "fouled" up. Just think of all the ex-servicemen who don't have to stand in line to get a piece of turkey and cold at that, too.

The Thanksgiving Day football game at the Chaffey stadium should be worth seeing, provided some of the "turkey gluttons" can drag themselves over there to see it.

With the Upland Junior High school students already raising half the funds for a heifer for relief, it might be well to buy half a heifer and send the producing end over first, followed later by the eating half.

Speaking of the project, our hats are off to Kevin Forsderb, who by doorbell ringing collected $13.25 for the cow. Such a depth of understanding for the children's needs of other lands might well be copied by the adults.

'Thanksgiving' Motif For Episcopal Rites

A choral celebration of the Eucharist at 10 a.m. will mark the celebration of Thanksgiving day at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The choirmaster, Herbert Gray, will sing the offertory solo. The rector, Rev. John A. Luther, will deliver the sermon entitled "Thanksgiving."

The re-table back of the altar will be decorated with the fruits of the fields, vineyards, and groves, symbols of the bountiful gifts received from God. Rev. Luther offers the thought that it is a privilege of Christians to offer thanks on this day for the care received during the past year.

Irrigation projects now under construction are expected to turn 500,000 desert acres on the Sinai Peninsula into productive land

The Sinai Peninsula produces approximately 150,000 metric tons of magnesium ore annually.

Four UCLA Bruins Named on AP All-Pacific Coast Team

Pick Baldwin, Malmberg, Paul, Case; Two USC Men Honored

BY RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27. (AP)—Coast conference champion and automatic Rose Bowl nominee, the University of California at Los Angeles, placed four players on the Associated Press' All-Pacific Coast football team for 1946.

The 22nd annual mythical varsity eleven, selected through the consensus vote of sports writers and coaches, includes two stars from Southern California, which lost its Rose Bowl chance against UCLA; two from Stanford and one each from Washington, St. Mary's college and the University of San Francisco.

Singularly, Oregon State college, currently in second place in the coast conference standings and with one game to play with Washington failed to land a man on the first team. It placed three candidates on the second squad.

Only one repeater from the 1945 team is noted. Halfback Herman Wedemeyer, St. Mary's, made it for the second year by popular vote. Jake Leicht, Oregon halfback who won all coast honors last year, was named to the 1946 second eleven while Cal Rossi, U.C.L.A., a first stringer last season was relegated to a spot on the present third team. Rossi, however, undoubtedly would have been a top choice this year except for a broken ankle bone which sidelined him for several weeks.

Burr Baldwin, clever U.C.L.A. end was a unanimous choice and St. Mary's Wedemeyer polled nearly a perfect score.

The AP's first all coast team for 1946:

Tigers Prepare For First C. I. F. Tilt, But Who Are They Going To Play?

The Chaffey Tigers, C.B.L. champions, are going to start their C.I.F. playoffs this Saturday afternoon at the Chaffey stadium but who are they going to play?

Right at this moment nobody seems to know. The only thing that's certain is that the Chaffey High school eleven is going to play and if they win they're going to keep on going and see if they can't win the Southern California championship, too.

It all stacks up like this. The winner of the Sunset league has not been decided as yet and will not be until late tonight, that's how nip and tuck the race in that league is.

Anaheim might be the team that the Tigers have to hurdle in order to stay in the C.I.F. race, or it might be Santa Ana and then again it could be Huntington Beach. Take your choice? No doubt, Coach Truck Lindsey wishes he could but unfortunately it can't be decided that way.

Yes, it does sound a bit confusing, but the general idea is this. All three teams are virtually tied now and the results of games Wednesday will determine just who is going to be Chaffey's opponent next Saturday.

From the looks of things now, it looks like it's going to be Anaheim but Coach Lindsey can't be sure. So, in the meantime the Tigers wait and ponder—against what kind of an offensive shall they prepare themselves. "T" formation, single wing, or what? Each of the contending teams in the Sunset league use something else.

But the waiting will be over late tonight. Around 10 o'clock at least Coach Lindsey will know because he'll be scouting all of them. Then come Thursday, the Tigers will really get some heavy workouts. They'll know who they're going to play and they'll start getting ready for it.

Reds Beat Whites in Inter-Squad Game at Upland Junior High, 14-6

The Upland Junior high school football team climaxed the most successful season on record yesterday by the annual inter-squad game, which was won by the Red team, 14 to 6, against the Whites.

The teams were picked by Coach Clyde Frisholz and were evenly matched throughout the game.

The Reds scored the first touchdown in the opening period with Willie Richardson going over from the 2 yard line after long runs by Bill Casler and Jack Roper had placed the ball in scoring position. Casler ran the ball across for the conversion.

The game see-sawed back and forth during the second quarter with no scoring, but the Whites unleashed a power offensive in the third period, with Rudy Valadez plunging over from the 4 yard line to score. The conversion failed and the score was 7 to 6. In this drive, the Whites carried the ball for 80 yards with Valadez doing most of the running.

It looked like the Whites were about to pick up another score as the team drove 50 yards again to the 5 yard line. Here the Reds took over, and on the second play a sensational run by Casler of 92 yards put the team out in front. Both Roper and Richardson did superb blocking for Casler as he raced the length of the field. Roper crossed the goal for the conversion, making it 14 to 6.

There were no substitutions and no injuries. Only two of the lettermen, Jack Thomas and Roland Sanchez will be on the team next year, the remainder of the squad moving on to Chaffey.

GOOD SHAPE

New York, Nov. 27. (AP) — George Herman "Babe" Ruth, baseball's "king of swat," is in "good" condition at French hospital where he is suffering from a sinus infection, a physician said today.

With dove season now open it is a toss-up whether the hunter pots a bag limit in the brush or be hit by a potted driver on the road home.

Ask Shakeup Of Athletics At California

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 27 (AP)—The Associated Students executive committee, which has had a big voice in hiring and firing football coaches at the University of California, meets today amid student and press blasts against Head Coach Frank Wickhorst and most of his helpers.

Wickhorst is on the pan from The Daily Californian, official student publication, which has editorially demanded "an overhauling of the sickly athletic situation". The paper expressed fears U. C. may become "The Chicago of the West", referring to the University of Chicago which abandoned football after losing steadily in the thirties.

The Bears, led by Wickhorst in the first half of a two-year contract upon his return from navy physical education duties, lost seven games this season against two wins, a showing the head man ascribes largely to injuries of kep players. He had said he has no intention of resigning.

The Daily Californian, urging the hiring of a new coaching staff with exception of former California star Vic Bottari, declared unless this step is taken the Bears' plight would become "a disgrace to the school and the Pacific coast'.

"California's traditionally conservative offense has to go," the student paper editorialized. "Talent has been wasted; the flatness exhibited by the California gridders in the latter stages of the season was caused by lack of confidence; financial tightness in general is one cause of trouble. Some sort of athletic deal for the gridders must be set up so players may get a square deal."

Name George Connor Lineman of Week

NEW YORK, Nov. 27. (AP)—Notre Dame's George Connor, who has been playing a bangup game all season, finally has been nominated as lineman of the Associated Press poll.

An All-American tackle candidate, Connor earned the honor this week for his play in the Notre Dame-Tulane game at New Orleans. Bill Gray, Oregon State center, was one of the other linemen who were singled out for praise. Other Pacific Coast linemen nominated this week were: Don Hardy, USC, end; ohn Ferraro, USC, tackle; Bill Chamber, UCLA; Bill Hacten, Stanford, guard; Don Paul, UCLA, center.

Berdoo Just As Good As Pomona Lindsey Says

"San Bernardino was one of the toughest teams we ever met and every bit as good as Pomona," Coach Truck Lindsey told the Chaffey Quarterbacks yesterday morning in explaining why the champion Tigers were held to a 13-13 tie.

"Besides they had everything to gain and nothing to lose, so they threw everything they had at us," the Tiger grid mentor added.

Speaking at the Chaffey cafeteria, Coach Lindsey said that the fact that they defeated Pomona was more important to the Tigers than winning the C. B. L. championship and as a result they were not at their best mentally when they met the Cardinals. In addition, the boys knew they would be in the C. I. F. playoffs and the game naturally was a terrific letdown.

Head Coach Ray Rosso and Assistant Coaches Johnny Meek and Jack White also spoke, explaining the various angles of the Riverside game last Friday.

Coach Rosso said that judging from the way Riverside played against the Panthers, it was hard to see why the Tigers hadn't won more games than they did.

"Riverside was out to beat us and they were very much disappointed that they didn't," Coach White declared.

Bob Garton, Tiger end, was a guest of the club and was introduced by Coach Lindsey.

Al Homer, who makes up the "guessing sheets" for the football games of the week, proved to be the best this week. He missed only two.

The committee handling the gridiron banquet which will be held by the Quarterbacks for both Chaffey teams, met briefly after the meeting to discuss plans.

Game Thanksgiving Day Will See Two Passing Teams In Action

Two evenly-matched football machines will meet head-on at the Chaffey stadium Thanksgiving afternoon when the Chaffey Panthers, Orange Empire champions, play host to East Los Angeles junior College, in their first post-season game. Kick-off time is 2 p. m.

Using the "T" and in many respects the same offensive and defensive tactics, Chaffey and East Los Angeles will no doubt provide a good football dish for the spectators tomorrow. Both teams have had a successful season and concentrate on playing a wide open game.

One disadvantage for the Panthers will be their natural letdown after the gruelling Riverside game which gave them the league title. On the other hand, the visitors, who were the only team to defeat John Muir this year and whose request for a second game was denied by Muir officials, will be raring to go and hungry for a victory with which to ring down the curtain on their football season.

Same Kind

"We're pretty much the same kind of a ball club, although they (East Los Angeles) may have some edge over us in weight," Coach Ray Rosso said in predicting a close game.

SNEPO PICKS

Panthers to tie E.L.A. Jaycee—Both teams seem evenly matched and with both relying on passes as much as they do, it ought to be a nip and tuck battle.

"If there's any edge at all, it should go to them," he added.

Grant Lewis 10-Day Extension In Effort to Put End to Strike

who took the doctor's advice."

At another point, Goldsborough remarked that Lewis and the United Mine workers made "a very great mistake" in walking out before the courts ruled on their contract dispute with the government.

Real Issue

Goldsborough said the real issue which the court hoped to settle was whether Lewis had the right to break off his contract with the government, or whether under the Smith-Connally Labor Disputes act he was impelled to keep his miners on the job for the duration of government operation.

Lawyers for Lewis argued that operation of the coal mines is not a "sovereign" function of the government, and that the government itself does not regard the miners as government employes. Therefore, they conttended, the Smith-Connally Act, which outlaws the instigation of strikes against the government, does not apply.

Lewis' attorneys contended the government was directly responsible for the soft coal walkout.

"There need not have been any cessation of employment—there would not be today," counsel for Lewis said, "if the government had complied with the terms of the contract."

"If the Norris-LaGuardia Act is applicable, then this court had no right to issue the contempt ruling," Padway declared.

Purpose

After relating how the Norris-LaGuardia Act had been drawn by congress specifically to protect unions from being deprived of their economic weapons through restraining orders and injunctions, Padway called attention to Goldsborough's stop-strike order served on Lewis November 18.

"If there ever was a command to go back to work, this order commands that very thing," Padway declared.

The government contends that the Norris-LaGuardia Act does not apply when the employer is the government as in the case of the coal mines.

It was Padway's first appearance in the case, which promised to develop into an historic legal battle affecting broad principles of labor policy.

As government economists reported a 90-day shutdown in the coal fields would be "catastrophic" to the nation, Lewis arrived in the Washington courtroom accompanied by two auto loads of attorneys and advisors.

Faces Jail

A panel of prospective jurors to "advise" Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough was waiting when he arrived. Selection of the advisory jury was the first order of business after preliminary motions.

If convicted of contempt for ignoring Judge Goldsborough's order of Nov. 18 that he withdraw the contract cancellation notice, Lewis faces a possible jail term and fines which could bite deeply into his own pocket and the union's $13,500,000 treasury.

Judge Goldsborough announced at the outset he was considering giving the jury full power to acquit or convict Lewis of the contempt charge.

Laski Sees Revolution in Britain Unless Social Changes Are Made

LONDON, Nov. 27. (AP) — Harold J. Laski declared from a witness box in the King's Bench division court today likelihood of revolution in Great Britain was "very great indeed" if the conservative party failed to accept the labor government's social changes.

Laski, chairman of the labor party until last June, was undergoing cross-examination on his political and religious views in the trial of his libel suit against a weekly newspaper which, he said, fasely represented him as favoring a violent revolution.

"Assuming that revolution by consent fails," Laski was asked by defense counsel Sir Patrick Hastings, "what circumstances justify revolution by violence?"

"The circumstance in which the labor government, with a majority, is resisted by the force of opposition and is therefore compelled to invoke special powers in order to govern," Laski replied. "I have always left room for the belief that in this country, through its long tradition of constitutionalism and the maturity of the people, we might avoid what happened to countries like Spain, German, Austria and Greece."

Pick UCLA for Rose Bowl

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 27. (AP)—Pacific Coast conference commissioner Victor O. Schmidt announced today that UCLA had been selected unanimously as the West's representative in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena New Year's Day.

Coach Bert LaBrucherie's undefeated Bruins got all 10 conference votes, including that of their cross-town Los Angeles rival, the University of Southern California, which was in the running for the Rose Bowl until it lost to UCLA last Saturday, 13-6.

UCLA'S opponent will be the Big Nine conference representative, undoubtedly the University of Illinois, the conference champion, but the formal vote of the conference members has not been announced.

Illinois finished its season last week with a 20 to 0 defeat of Northwestern. The Illini has lost two games, to Notre Dame and Indiana.

UCLA finishes its regular season here Saturday as a top heavy favorite to beat the University of Nebraska.

TROJANS LEAVE

Panthers Play L.A. Team Here

"They're an independent bunch and will be trying hard to finish their season with a win."

East Los Angeles is reported to have a heavier line than the Panthers, with the backfield about the same. Both squads operate from the "T" and depend on lots of passing for their offensive. While the visitors' ground attack is also better than average, they rely mostly on their aerial attacks in the pinches which is exactly what Chaffey has done this season.

Use Everybody

Coach Rosso said he will "try to use every man on the squad, specially those who didn't play in the Riverside game." With the league crown safely tucked away, the Panthers will have an opportunity to try as many plays and take as many chances as they want before their trip up north to play Modesto on Dec. 7.

Starting lineup for the game tomorrow will probably be:

Two Auto Crashes Reported Here

Two traffic accidents in Upland yesterday and late Monday afternoon resulted in slight property damages but neither the drivers or passengers received any injuries.

Walter C. Moore, 263 East G street, and Thomas Delno Maxwell, 266 North Eighth avenue, were involved in a crash at Euclid avenue and Ninth street yesterday which resulted in the two cars being interlocked.

Mr. Maxwell was crossing Euclid when Mr. Moore who tried to turn right to avoid the accident hit the rear fender, locking the two cars together.

Three cars were involved in the accident Monday which resulted in slight damages to the rear front fender of the car driven by Harland P. Horak, Red Hill. Mr. Horak was going south on North Second avenue and a Mr. Bubier south on Second when a third car ran into Mr. Horak's car. The identity of the driver of the third car is not known.

Valley Project Will Be Aired At Meeting

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 27. (AP) Arguments will be invited on both sides of the controversial 160-acre limitation in the Federal Reclamation Act as it applies to California's central Valley project at a meeting of the joint legislative interim committee on water problems in San Francisco Dec. 6.

State Senator Bradford S. Crittenden, Stockton republican who is chairman of the committee, today announced the calling of the meeting.

"We intend to begin a study of the 160-acre limitation and invite arguments on both sides," he said.

The state legislature, convening Jan. 6, has no power to alter the federal limitation but may offer a resolution to congress on the subject.

Other water matters on the agenda of the San Francisco hearing, Crittenden said, will be:

The question of granting additional powers to the state water resources board. Pros and cons on the proposed Monticello dam in Napa county, and the possibility of the state taking over the Central Valley project in the future, and "retaining California ownership and water rights."

Stop, Look, And Don't Listen

MISSOULA, Mont. AP — Police Chief Neil Fisher made a survey which convinced him that 99 per cent of foot and auto traffic in Missoula was moving by the traffic signal bells, thereby jumping the lights. So he disconnected the bells.

"Slip Your Mitt"

NEW YORK — Boy meets Girl lots faster these days on college campuses across the nation, merely by saying "Slip the Mitt." In jive talk, this cryptic phrase means "What's your name?" Lovely New York university coeds above have taken to wearing their names embroidered on their knitted mittens. All any girl need do is wave a monickered mitten before his dazzled eyes, and with a twist of the wrist, they're acquainted.

Herald-Express Strike Ends

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 27. (AP) The Los Angeles Herald-Express, Hearst-owned afternoon newspaper strikebound by a CIO newspaper guild strike since Sept. 4, will resume publication next Monday.

Guild and management spokesmen, in a joint statement last night, announced agreement on wages and other issues, with proviso the union may seek further pay increases by negotiation and arbitration.

The new scales will give journeymen editorial workers — those with five years experience — a raise from $70 to $80 weekly, with comparable increases in all other positions under guild jurisdiction.

Everyone will receive at least $5 weekly boost, with the overall average being about 14 per cent. A 7½ per cent differential was provided for night work, and circulation district men will receive about 14 per cent more than their former $58 to $60 per week. The guild formerly had asked $100 weekly for experienced editorial and circulation district workers.

More Than Ever — Thrifty Buyers Are Turning To

We heart it often and we know it is true—more and more people are saying: "We want a Servel."

They've learned from friends and neighbors that the Gas Refrigerator stays noiseless and wear-free. The secret? A tiny gas flame replaces moving, wearing parts in its freezing system.

New Servels are coming off the line every day. * * *

You will be thrilled to see one——you will be thrifty-wise if you order one.

The Servel freezes with NO MOVING PARTS.
